Calligraphy of the Japanese character 'は' (ha). The character is written in a bold, expressive style. Red numbers 1, 2, and 3 indicate the stroke order: 1 for the vertical stroke, 2 for the horizontal crossbar, and 3 for the curved base. Red arrows show the direction of the brush strokes. To the right of the character, the word '波' (ha, meaning wave) is written vertically in red cursive. Below the character, the phrase 'かゝるへ' (kakarue, meaning to attach to) is written in red, with an arrow pointing to the base of the character. The character is set against a background of horizontal and vertical dashed lines.
